2022 Cantine Fina Kika Bianco • ABV: 13.5%

The 2022 Cantine Fina Kika Bianco is a Sicilian white wine crafted from a blend of Traminer and Sauvignon Blanc. Grown on the mountain Erice near Trapani, at an altitude of 800 meters above sea level, the vineyard benefits from a cooler climate that enhances the wine's aromatic complexity. It presents a fragrant nose of jasmine, lychee, juniper, and sweet basil, with a medium-bodied, creamy texture. The palate is intense and full, showcasing fruity and floral notes with hints of spices. A subtle saline dimension from the Marsala terroir adds depth to its soft, fruity character. This wine is best enjoyed with shellfish, vegetarian dishes, and appetizers, making it a versatile and elegant choice.

2023 Bodegas Pardevalles Tierra de León Albarin Blanco • ABV: 13%

The 2023 Bodegas Pardevalles Tierra de León Albarín Blanco is a vibrant Spanish white wine made exclusively from the indigenous Albarín Blanco grape. Grown in vineyards situated between 750 and 820 meters above sea level, the grapes thrive in poor, rocky soils of alluvial origin. The wine undergoes cold maceration for 48 hours, followed by fermentation in stainless steel tanks at 13°C, preserving its fresh and aromatic profile. It presents a bright yellow color with greenish reflections, offering aromas of fresh fruit, herbs, and citrus, with subtle mineral notes. On the palate, it is lively and crisp, showcasing flavors of white fruit, herbs, and citrus, balanced by good acidity and a smooth finish. This expressive wine pairs beautifully with seafood, fish, pasta, and rice dishes, making it a versatile and refreshing choice.

2024 Malat Crazy Creatures Grüner Veltliner • ABV: 12%

This vivacious Grüner Veltliner is crafted from estate-grown, hand-harvested grapes rooted in the limestone-rich soils of Austria's Kremstal DAC. Sustainably farmed and naturally fermented with native yeasts, it delivers a seamless expression of site and grape variety. Aromas of bright lime, white peach, grapefruit, fresh herbs, and a hint of white pepper lead to a mineral-driven palate with zesty acidity and a clean, savory finish. Each bottle features one of four whimsical "creature" labels selected at random—playful packaging paired with seriously terroir-driven winemaking. High-quality and highly rated, this Grüner offers both charm and exceptional value.

2021 Vina Robles The Arborist • ABV: 14%

The 2021 Vino Robles The Arborist is a bold Paso Robles red blend composed of 45% Syrah, 33% Petite Sirah, 13% Grenache, and 9% Tannat. It opens with aromas of dark blue fruits layered over a sanguine, rusty minerality that hints at depth and complexity. On the palate, you'll find supple tannins, oak spice, and savory notes reminiscent of bloody meats, all wrapped around a core of ripe fruit. Aged for 18 months in oak, the wine balances richness with structure, making it versatile for food pairings. Accents of mocha and hibiscus add nuance to its medium-bodied, fruit-forward finish. With a 92-point rating from Wine Enthusiast, it's celebrated as one of the best quality-for-value bottlings of its vintage.

The Wine Thief Provisions & Bistro Frankfort, IL

2021 Thurston Wolfe Zinfandel • ABV: 15.4%

The 2021 Thurston Wolfe “Zephyr” Zinfandel is a bold, expressive red from Washington’s Yakima Valley and Horse Heaven Hills AVAs. Sourced from Zephyr Ridge Vineyard, the vines were planted in 1998 using cuttings from UC Davis, making them among the earliest Zinfandel plantings in the state. The wine was harvested at 27 Brix and aged for 16–25 months in a mix of American and French oak, depending on the bottling. It showcases vibrant aromas of cherry, raspberry, strawberry, and plum, layered with oak spice and moderate tannins. On the palate, expect dark blackberry fruit, cracked pepper, baking spice, and plush texture balanced by a subtle freshness. This Zinfandel pairs beautifully with BBQ, grilled sausages, and pizza, offering a rich finish and full-bodied appeal.

NV Cantina Settecani Lambrusco di Castelvetro Amabile • ABV: 8%

The NV Cantina Settecani Lambrusco di Castelvetro Amabile is a sweet, gently sparkling red wine made from 100% Lambrusco Grasparossa grapes grown in Emilia-Romagna, Italy. It pours a garnet red with lively effervescence and aromas of violets, raspberries, and blackberry jam. On the palate, it offers a soft mousse, tangy acidity, and flavors of blueberry, cherry, and confectionery notes like cocoa and clove.

With just 8% alcohol, it’s light-bodied and approachable, ideal for pairing with cured meats, hard cheeses, or even desserts. The wine has earned multiple accolades, including a Double Gold from Gilbert & Gaillard and a 91-point rating from Wine Enthusiast. Served chilled at 10–12°C, it’s a festive and versatile choice for casual gatherings or celebratory meals.

St George Spiced Pear Liqueur • ABV: 20%

St. George Spiced Pear Liqueur is a richly layered, fruit-forward spirit crafted from Bartlett pears, Saigon cinnamon, clove, organic cane sugar, and malic acid. It begins with the distillery’s flagship pear brandy, which is then blended with luscious pear juice and warm baking spices to create a liqueur with 20% ABV. On the nose, it offers a crisp pear perfume, while the palate reveals flavors of pear butter, cinnamon, and clove, with a buttery texture and long, lush finish. The liqueur is praised for its balance of sweetness and acidity, making it versatile in cocktails or delightful on its own. It shines in drinks like a Spiced Pear Old Fashioned or a French 75, and also pairs beautifully with cheese plates, pork, duck, or even desserts like ice cream and pound cake. With accolades including a Gold Medal at the 2023 Sunset International Spirits Competition, it’s a bartender’s secret weapon for adding depth and seasonal flair.

J. Henry & Sons TWT Single Barrel Patton Road Reserve • ABV: 59.2%

J. Henry & Sons TWT Single Barrel Patton Road Reserve is a true expression of Wisconsin craftsmanship and patience. On the nose, it opens with a light, smoky burnt sugar aroma that hints at caramelized oak and toasted grain. The palate delivers rich, layered notes that unfold slowly. Warm spice, vanilla, and a touch of smoke that deepens with each sip. Despite its intensity, the whiskey glides across the tongue with a deceptively smooth character, earning its reputation for a signature “Wisconsin hug.” The finish is long, complex, and satisfying, carrying whispers of charred sweetness and mellow oak. A thoughtful pour for those who appreciate balance, depth, and a sense of place in every glass.
